

Additional Information

- 1. What is Meals for Six (Breaking Bread)?

This ministry is a great way to meet folks from church that you may not already know. It's also a good way to get to know your church family better. Groups plan their own meals and decide when to get together. You share meals at participants' homes, at local restaurants, at the church, or wherever the group decides. The emphasis is on fun and fellowship, so you don't have to be a gourmet cook to participate.
- 2. How does it work?

Simply fill out the online registration form or fill out a form at the church and return it in one of the bread boxes outside the worship hall. Once groups are formed, a Group Coordinator will be selected for each group. The Group Coordinator will contact members to arrange the details for the first gathering. Groups are encouraged to be creative in the meals they enjoy together.
- 3. What does a Group Coordinator do?

This is the point person for the Group. The Group Coordinator contacts group members to select the location, date, and food sign-ups for the first gathering.
- 4. Who cooks the meals?

It's potluck! Usually the host will make the main dish, and other participants will bring coordinating sides or desserts. Potluck dinners are also a good way to simplify meal planning and distribute costs equally among everyone in the group. Consider picking a dinner "theme night" (i.e. Italian night, backyard barbeque, soup night, etc.), and everyone can bring a dish that goes along with that theme. Some groups may also choose to visit local restaurants or other venues.
- 5. I don't have room to host a dinner, or I really can't cook!

Our desire is for you to spend time together getting to know each other and include everyone. Your group may choose to meet at a host home or eat out. If finding a host home is difficult, your group is welcome to schedule a meal at the church. We want everyone to feel that they can participate.
- 6. How are the groups formed?

The groups are formed by a hospitality team member. Our goal will be to put people together so that each group has, at most, eight adults, taking into account the preferences that you listed. Groups may be comprised of all couples, two couples and four singles, one couple and six singles, etc. It all depends on who signs up. The mystery is part of this ministry's excitement!
- 7. What about families with children?

Your group will determine the answer here, bearing in mind that your preference for the kind of group you are interested in will have been taken into account initially. Please be sure to indicate your group-type preference on the registration form.
- 8. Sounds like fun! Can I sign up anytime?

Yes! Group formations are ongoing.
